

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface by the editors	vii
Preface by the dean	ix
1 Substance over Form and the European Prospectus Regime Tomas Arons	1
2 Parent and Subsidiary: For Better or for Worse? Steef Bartman	9
3 The Paradox of the Dutch Class Action and the Fear of a ‘Compensation Culture’ Eddy Bauw	19
4 What’s in a Name? Names and Conceptual Frameworks for the Design of, and Approaches to, Law Programme Courses on Undertakings Ernst van Bemmelen	29
5 Judicial Protection for Credit Institutions under the Single Supervisory Mechanism Ton Duijkersloot & Rob Widdershoven	53
6 Kelly v. Fraser Compared to the Allocation of Risk in Agency Law in the Netherlands Anka Ernes	71
7 Changing the Causation Requirement and Its Impact on Companies Faced with Tort Claims Ivo Giesen & Rianka Rijnhout	83
8 Towards a European Commercial Code? Ewoud Hondius	107
9 Yes We Can (in the Near Future); the Internationalisation of the Law of Execution and Attachment Anthonie W. Jongbloed	117

TABLE OF CONTENTS

10	Substance over Form in Various Aspects of Cross-Border Company Groups	145
	Bastiaan Kemp & Mieke Olaerts
11	The Societas Europaea (SE) Revisited	163
	Harold Koster
12	Who Is in Control in Public Procurement?	177
	Pieter Kuypers
13	Enforcing Annulled Arbitral Awards in the Netherlands	195
	Vesna Lazić
14	What Is the Difference between a Worker and an Undertaking? New Developments in EU Labour Law and Competition Law	209
	Frans Pennings
15	Minority Shareholdings in the EU: Between Economics, Corporate Law, Antitrust and Merger Control	221
	Catalin Rusu
16	Cross-border Conversions after Vale – the German Experience	249
	Christoph Teichmann
17	Shareholders’ Fundamental Rights in Listed Companies Some Relevant and Some Undesirable EU Initiatives	271
	Erik Werlauff
	Contributors	289