

TABLE OF CONTENTS

List of Abbreviations	vii
Preface	ix
Part I: Populism and Democracy
Introduction: A Populist Age	3
Sascha Hardt
Rise of Populist Parties and Decline of People’s Parties: Loss of Parties as a Guarantor of the Consolidation of Democracy?	17
Hans-Joachim Lauth and Christoph Mohamad-Klotzbach
Populist Parties Under Scrutiny – One Common Vision or a Scattered Agenda?	53
Tjitske Akkerman
Populism in Times of Social Media	69
Hoai-Thu Nguyen
Referendums and Democratic Constitutionalism: Is There a Way for Reconciliation?	87
Ilker Gökhan Şen
Part II: Country Reports
Austria – Protecting the Liberal Constitution	113
Maria Bertel
East-Central Europe – Populist Constitutionalism	143
Paul Blokker
France – The Resilience of the Constitutional Order to Populism so far and Potential Threats to the Separation of Powers	169
Diane Fromage and Sébastien Platon

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Greece – Populism and Constitutionalism	193
George Karavokyris
Hungary – Protecting the Liberal Constitution	213
Petra Gyöngyi
The Italian Paradox – Is There Such a Thing as Too Strong Constitutional Safeguards?	239
Matteo Bonelli
Spain – Constitutional Safeguards and Populism	265
Juan Antonio Chinchilla Peinado and Mónica Domínguez Martín
The United Kingdom and Populism	289
Alison L Young
Indonesia – Preserving Democracy Against the Rise of Populism	309
Rosa Ristawati and Radian Salman
The Case of the Philippine Judiciary – Guardian of Democracy or Enabler of Populism?	325
Dante Gatmaytan
Epilogue
Epilogue: Endangered Liberal Democracies and How to Safeguard Them	345
Aalt Willem Heringa and Hoai-Thu Nguyen
Appendices
Appendix 1	361
Appendix 2	363
Appendix 3	365