

Table of Contents

List of contributors		11
I	GENERAL TOPICS	13
1	Introducing Dutch law Sanne Taekema	15
1	Introduction	15
2	Dutch law as a European legal system	15
3	Sources of law	18
4	Dutch law in context	23
5	The structure of Dutch law and this book	28
2	A short overview of Dutch legal history Raymond Kubben and Randall Lesaffer	31
1	Introduction	31
2	The later Middle Ages (1000-1400)	32
3	Personal union under the Burgundians and Habsburgs (1400-1581)	36
4	The Dutch Republic	40
5	The Revolutionary era (1795-1813)	46
6	The Kingdom of the Netherlands (1813-present)	49
7	Conclusion	62
3	Dispute resolution inside and outside the courts Annie de Roo	63
1	Dispute resolution	63
2	Dispute resolution inside the courts	64
3	Dispute resolution outside the courts	78
II	PUBLIC LAW	89
4	Inhabiting legality How the Dutch keep reconstructing their ‘Rechtsstaat’ Willem J. Witteveen	91
1	Legality as an edifice	91
2	Foundations: the legal tradition and the republican heritage	93

3	The 18th century: liberal ideals	97
4	The 19th century: democratic institutions	105
5	The 20th century: social aspirations	111
6	Why the rechtsstaat is permanently under construction	114
7	Sagging floors of the rechtsstaat	118
5	Legislation in the Netherlands
	Instrumentalist and interactionist approaches to law	125
	Bart van Klink
1	The powers of the written word	125
2	The process of legislation	126
3	Legislation policy	138
4	New forms of regulation	145
5	The communicative turn and its critics	153
6	Dutch administrative law: the regent reigneth	157
	Rob Jagtenberg
1	Introduction	157
2	Administrative law instruments	158
3	Judicial protection	160
4	Administrative litigation practice: a critique	165
5	Government: stepping back or taking control?	167
6	Concluding observations	173
7	Principles of Dutch criminal law	175
	Sanne Taekema and Joost Nan
1	Introduction	175
2	The importance of legislation	177
3	Issues of substantive criminal law	179
4	Criminal procedure	183
5	Sanctions	190
6	Emancipation of the victim of a crime	193
III	PRIVATE LAW	197
8	The outlines of Dutch private law	199
	Harriët Schelhaas and Sanne Taekema
1	Introduction	199
2	The Dutch Civil Code	200
3	The open system of Dutch private law and the principle of reasonableness and fairness	205
4	The broad scope of tort law	209
5	Contract law	216
6	Concluding remarks	229

9	Family law	231
	Carinne Elion-Valter
1	Introduction	231
2	Features and principles of Dutch family law	232
3	Tendencies of family law	236
4	European and international family law	237
5	Name, nationality and gender	240
6	Affectionate relationships	243
7	Marital property relations	249
8	Divorce, separation and alimony	251
9	Affiliation	254
10	Adoption	258
11	Parental authority and joint authority	259
12	Succession law	263
13	Main features of Dutch succession law	265
14	Intestacy succession	267
15	Wills	270
16	Administration of the estate, transfer and partition	271
17	To conclude this chapter	272
10	The landscape of Dutch labor law	273
	Annie de Roo
1	Introduction	273
2	Historical development of the Dutch labor relations system	274
3	Sources of Dutch labor law	276
4	Collective regulation of labor relations	277
5	The 'life and death' of a contract of employment	282
6	Concluding observations	288
	Index	291