

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1	Introduction Dina Siegel and Brenda Oude Breuil	1
Part I Isolation – facts and fiction
2	Defaunation, wildlife exploitation and zoonotic diseases – A green criminological perspective Daan van Uhm and Damián Zaitch	11
3	Criminals without crime – The stigmatization of medical personnel during the Covid-19 pandemic in Cameroon Dany Tiwa	31
4	The phantom of the crisis – Fears and imaginaries behind the mask of the ‘Corona’ pandemic Veronika Nagy	51
5	Fake news and mediated representation of the Covid-19 crisis in Brazil – An infopandemic case Paula Gil Larruscahim	81
6	Domestic violence amid the intelligent lockdown in the Netherlands Roos de Wildt &amp; Majone Steketee	99
7	Evolution of conspiracy theory – 5G riding the wave of Covid-19 Elena Krsmanović and Anna Laskai	115
Part II Reactions to isolation: force and fight
8	“I hate to be that person, but my neighbours ...” – Covid-19 and the mobilization of informal social control through social media posts in Canada Jorge Castaneda Ochoa	147

TABLE OF CONTENTS

9	Covid-19 pandemic note – State of emergency condemned as a political weapon Jutathorn Pravattiyagul	171
10	Sex work in New Zealand amid the Covid-19 crisis – Values and limitations of a decriminalized sex industry Joep Rottier	187
11	The struggle between pro-health and pro-economy – Approaches towards Covid-19 amidst the fight against corruption and the criminalization of politics in Ecuador Byron Villagómez Moncayo	215
12	The lockdown and the crackdown – Controlling the responsabilized body during a pandemic Vassilis Gerasopoulos	243
13	“The need is bigger than the fear” – Skin hunger, sex work and stigma in quarantine times Brenda Oude Breuil	265
14	Covid-19 – the great equalizing purge – A critical examination of psychedelic perspectives on the coronavirus pandemic Richard Alexander	285
15	Amazing grace! The role of music in the Covid-19 pandemic Dina Siegel	313
	About the authors	333