

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Abbreviations	11
Introduction	13
1 General questions and definitions	19
1 What is legal research?	21
2 Who conducts legal research?	22
3 What types of legal research are there?	23
4 Is law a science?	25
5 What is doctrinal legal research?	28
6 What is meta-legal research?	32
7 What is empirical legal research?	34
8 What is normative research?	36
9 What is interdisciplinary legal research?	38
10 What is meant by knowledge valorisation?	40
11 What role do originality and creativity play within legal research?	42
12 Do lawyers get research subsidies and grants?	43
13 What does it take to obtain a doctorate in the field of law?	45
2 Research questions and research plan	47
14 How do I start a legal research project?	49
15 What does a research plan contain and what is a research design?	50
16 How do I find a research subject?	51
17 What do I need to consider when choosing a subject?	52
18 What types of research questions are there?	53
19 What are the conditions for a good research question?	55
20 What is the difference between a question of law and a research question?	56
21 What are subquestions?	57
22 What do the terms 'concept' and 'conceptualise' mean?	58
23 What does operationalising mean?	60

24	What is meant by the term 'data'?	61
25	What does a time schedule contain?	62
26	What is a provisional table of contents?	63
3	Theory	65
27	What does theory mean in terms of legal research?	67
28	What is a doctrinal legal theory (or a doctrine)?	69
29	What are micro-level, Grand and middle-range theories?	72
30	What is a normative theory?	74
4	Methods and methodology	77
31	What do the terms 'method' and 'methodology' mean?	79
32	What is the difference between quantitative and qualitative research?	80
33	How do I choose a method?	82
34	What is meant by validity (internal and external)?	84
35	Must a research report contain a justification of the methodology applied?	85
5	Searching and deciding on sources	87
36	How do I collect data?	89
37	What is the difference between a primary and a secondary source?	90
38	Where do I find treaties and laws?	91
39	Where do I find case law?	92
40	Where and how do I find literature?	93
41	How do I select the best sources?	95
42	What is a systematic literature study?	96
43	Where do I find meta-legal and empirical legal sources?	97
44	Can I find all sources online?	99
45	May I use Wikipedia as a source?	99
6	Doctrinal legal research	101
46	What is the difference between a judge and a legal scholar?	103
47	What are typical doctrinal legal research questions?	104
48	What methods are commonly used in doctrinal legal research?	105

49	How do I solve a legal problem?	107
50	Why and how do I analyse the parliamentary history of a law?	108
51	What are interpretation methods?	108
52	What role do argumentation theory and logic play in legal research?	110
53	What is a normative framework, and what is a yardstick or criterion?	112
54	What are human rights approaches to research?	113
7	Analysis of case law	115
55	What is case law analysis?	117
56	What is an annotation?	118
57	What case law is published online?	119
58	How do I recognise when a judgement cites another judgement?	119
59	What is quantitative case law analysis?	121
60	How can network analysis play a role in case law research?	122
8	Meta-legal research	125
61	What is philosophy of law research?	127
62	What is law and economics research?	128
63	What is legal sociology research?	130
64	What is legal history research?	132
65	What is law and information technology research?	133
9	Empirical legal research	135
66	What does 'empirical' mean?	137
67	What role does statistics play in legal research?	137
68	What is a variable, and what types of variables are there?	140
69	What role do surveys play within research?	142
70	What is observation research?	144
71	How do I use interviews in legal research?	145
72	What is a focus group or expert meeting?	147
73	What is the empirical normative method?	148

10	Comparative law	149
74	What is comparative law?	151
75	What is internal comparative law?	153
76	What are the different phases in external comparative law research?	154
77	What is meant by micro and macro comparative law?	156
78	How do I choose what to compare, and what countries should I compare?	157
79	What is dogmatic comparative law?	158
80	What is the functional method of comparative law?	160
81	What role do language skills play in comparative law research?	162
82	What is a tertium comparationis?	163
83	How do I describe the foreign law that is found?	164
84	How do I describe the differences and similarities?	165
85	How can I explain differences and similarities?	166
86	How do I assess the differences and similarities found?	167
11	Putting the research on paper	169
87	How do I start to write? How do I prevent a writer's block?	171
88	How is a research report usually structured?	172
89	What do a section and a paragraph contain?	174
90	How do I write correctly and attractively?	174
91	Why should I refer to earlier research and sources?	175
92	What is the difference between paraphrasing and citing?	177
93	How do I refer to sources?	177
12	Publication	179
94	What types of legal publications are there?	181
95	How do I select a journal for my article?	182
96	What is peer review, and how do I respond to a review?	183
97	What is open access publishing?	185

13	Research ethics and plagiarism	187
98	What is research ethics?	189
99	What is plagiarism?	191
100	How do I deal correctly with research data?	191
	Literature	193