

Contents

Introduction	13
STEP 1 From interest in a topic to a brainstorm for a subject	19
Learning Outcomes	19
1.1 Introduction	20
1.2 Brainstorm for a subject	23
1.3 Professional (legal) product	25
1.4 Writing your research proposal	33
STEP 2 Searching and finding of (social) legal information	39
Learning Outcomes	39
2.1 Searching for sources	40
2.2 Selecting and assessing information	47
2.3 Studying and interpreting found information	49
2.4 Reporting	52
2.5 Writing your research proposal	54
STEP 3 The (social) legal problem and the context	59
Learning Outcomes	59
3.1 Defining a problem	60
3.2 Levels in which problems occur	61
3.3 Contexts	62
3.4 Problem description and objective	63
3.5 Writing your research proposal	64
STEP 4 Formulating main and sub-questions	71
Learning Outcomes	71
4.1 Objectives for formulating a main question and sub-questions in a research	72
4.2 Types of research questions	73

4.3	Determining the type of main question	75
4.4	Formulating main and sub-questions	76
4.5	Writing your research proposal and research report	79

STEP 5 How to measure necessary constructs 81

	Learning Outcomes	81
5.1	Points of attention	82
5.2	Step 1: describing or defining concepts	85
5.3	Step 2: measure constructs	86
5.4	Step 3: determining dependent and independent variables	87
5.5	Topic list and questionnaire	88
5.6	Writing your research proposal and research report	89

STEP 6 Theoretical framework 91

	Learning Outcomes	91
6.1	What is the theoretical framework?	92
6.2	Difference in the theoretical framework between a (social) legal practice-based higher professional education research and legal-scientific research	93
6.3	How to proceed with the theoretical framework?	94
6.4	Earlier research	97
6.5	Organizational and social framework	97
6.6	Political and legal framework	100
6.7	Writing your research proposal	101

STEP 7 Choosing your research methods; justification and accountability 107

	Learning Outcomes	107
7.1	Main research question and choosing your research method	108
7.2	Quantitative and qualitative research	109
7.3	Literature and legal research	110
7.4	Interview	111
7.5	Survey	114
7.6	Observation	116
7.7	Triangulation	118
7.8	Writing your research proposal and research report	119

STEP 8 Data collection	121
Learning Outcomes	121
8.1 Quantitative and qualitative data	122
8.2 Legal sources	122
8.3 Literature research and other documents	125
8.4 Interview	126
8.5 Survey	133
8.6 Observation	136
8.7 Writing your research proposal and research report	137
STEP 9 Interpreting collected data	143
Learning Outcomes	143
9.1 Quantitative and qualitative data	144
9.2 Legal sources	144
9.3 Literature and other documents	146
9.4 Interview	147
9.5 Survey	151
9.6 Observation	156
9.7 Writing your research report	158
STEP 10 Writing the (final) report	163
Learning Outcomes	163
10.1 Writing the research report	164
10.2 The elements of the research report	164
10.3 The structure of a research report	168
10.4 Conclusion and recommendations	172
10.5 Objective and vision	174
Bibliography	177
Index	179
About the authors	181