

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction	1
André Klip
The Practice of Greece on the European Arrest Warrant	5
Christina Peristeridou
Introduction	5
Part 1: Preliminary Matters	6
Method of conducted research	6
Part 2: Transposition of Framework Decision 2002/584/JHA	6
A General questions	6
B Your Member State as issuing Member State	22
C Your Member State as executing Member State	35
D EAW-form	42
E Language regime	42
Part 3: Problems regarding the individual sections of the EAW-form	44
A Information regarding the identity of the requested person	44
B Decision on which the EAW is based	45
C Indications on the length of the sentence	48
D Appearance in person at the trial resulting in the decision	53
E Offences	54
F Other circumstances relevant to the case (optional information)	62
G The seizure and handing over of property	64
H Guarantees concerning life sentences	65
I Information about the issuing judicial authority and the Central Authority, signature	65
Part 4: Problems not directly related to the EAW-form	66
A Supplementary/additional information (Art. 15(2)-(3))	66
B Time limits (Art 17)	69
C Guarantee of return (Art. 5(3))	72
D Detention conditions/deficiencies in the judicial system	75
E Surrender to and from Iceland and Norway	83
F (Analogous) application of the Petruhhin judgment	83

TABLE OF CONTENTS

G	Speciality rule	85
	Part 5: Conclusions, opinions et cetera	87
The practice of the Netherlands on the European Arrest Warrant		93
Vincent Glerum & Hans Kijlstra
	Part 1: Preliminary matters	93
	Part 2: Transposition of Framework Decision 2002/584/JHA	95
A	General questions	95
B	Your Member State as issuing Member State	120
C	Your Member State as executing Member State	127
D	EAW-form	140
E	Language regime	140
	Part 3: Problems regarding the individual sections of the EAW-form	142
A	Information regarding the identity of the requested person	142
B	Decision on which the EAW is based	143
C	Indications on the length of the sentence	147
D	Appearance in person at the trial resulting in the decision	152
E	Offences	154
F	Other circumstances relevant to the case (optional information)	167
G	The seizure and handing over of property	171
H	Guarantees concerning life sentences	172
I	Information about the issuing judicial authority and the Central Authority, signature	174
	Part 4: Problems not directly related to the EAW-form	175
A	Supplementary/additional information (Art. 15(2)-(3))	175
B	Time limits (Art. 17)	177
C	Guarantee of return (Art. 5(3))	181
D	Detention conditions/deficiencies in the system of justice	192
E	Surrender to and from Iceland and Norway	210
	Ebis. The EPPO	213
F	(Analogous) application of the Petruhhin judgment	214
G	Speciality rule	219
	Part 5: Conclusions, opinions et cetera	226
The practice of Poland on the European Arrest Warrant		237
Małgorzata Wąsek-Wiaderek & Adrian Zbiciak

Part 1: Preliminary matters	237
Part 2: Transposition of Framework Decision 2002/584/JHA	238
A General questions	238
B Your Member State as issuing Member State	252
C Your Member State as executing Member State	264
D EAW-form	270
E Language regime	270
Part 3: Problems regarding the individual sections of the EAW-form	271
A Information regarding the identity of the requested person	271
B Decision on which the EAW is based	272
C Indications on the length of the sentence	274
D Appearance in person at the trial resulting in the decision	279
E Offences	279
F Other circumstances relevant to the case (optional information)	285
G The seizure and handing over of property	287
H Guarantees concerning life sentences	287
I Information about the issuing judicial authority and the Central Authority, signature	287
Part 4: Problems not directly related to the EAW-form	288
A Supplementary/additional information (Art. 15(2)-(3))	288
B Time limits (Art. 17)	291
C Guarantee of return (Art. 5(3))	292
D Detention conditions/deficiencies in the judicial system	297
E Surrender to and from Iceland and Norway	302
F (Analogous) application of the Petruhhin judgment	303
G Speciality rule	306
Part 5: Conclusions, opinions et cetera	311
Conclusions	323
Vincent Glerum & Hans Kijlstra
1 Introduction	323
2 Transposition of FD 2002/584/JHA	323
2.1 Transposition in general	323
2.2 Incorrect transposition	324
2.3 Causes of incorrect transposition	325
3 The interplay between national legislators and national judges	326

TABLE OF CONTENTS

4	Divergent practices between the three Member States	328
5	Divergent practices within the individual Member States	330
Annex – Questionnaire Improving Mutual Recognition of European Arrest Warrants through Common Practical Guidelines (ImprovEAW)		331
	Part 1: Preliminary matters	332
	Part 2: Transposition of Framework Decision 2002/584/JHA	332
A	General questions	333
B	Your Member State as issuing Member State	335
C	Your Member State as executing Member State	340
D	EAW-form	343
E	Language regime	343
	Part 3: Problems regarding the individual sections of the EAW-form	344
A	Information regarding the identity of the requested person	345
B	Decision on which the EAW is based	346
C	Indications on the length of the sentence	349
D	Appearance in person at the trial resulting in the decision	353
E	Offences	353
F	Other circumstances relevant to the case (optional information)	357
G	The seizure and handing over of property	359
H	Guarantees concerning life sentences	360
I	Information about the issuing judicial authority and the Central Authority, signature	362
	Part 4: Problems not directly related to the EAW-form	363
A	Supplementary/additional information (Art. 15(2)-(3))	363
B	Time limits (Art. 17)	366
C	Guarantee of return (Art. 5(3))	367
D	Detention conditions/deficiencies in the judicial system	369
E	Surrender to and from Iceland and Norway	374
F	(Analogous) application of the Petruhhin judgment	375
G	Speciality rule	377
	Part 5: Conclusions, opinions et cetera	379
About the authors		381