

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| About the series   | v   |
| Foreword   | vii |
| Acknowledgements   | ix  |
| Chapter 1  |     |
| Introduction   | 1   |
| Chapter 2  |     |
| What is restorative justice? Fresh answers to a vexed question                                       | 29  |
| Chapter 3  |     |
| Feminism, justice and ethics: Reflections on Braithwaite's commitments                               | 53  |
| Chapter 4  |     |
| Criminal justice ideologies and practices in different voices: Some feminist questions about justice | 67  |
| Chapter 5  |     |
| Sexual assault and restorative justice   | 87  |
| Chapter 6  |     |
| Feminist engagement with restorative justice   | 117 |
| Chapter 7  |     |
| Seeking justice in the 21st century: Towards an intersectional politics of justice                   | 139 |
| Chapter 8  |     |
| Restorative justice: The real story  | 165 |
| Chapter 9  |     |
| The limits of restorative justice  | 193 |
| Chapter 10   |     |
| Restorative justice for victims of sexual assault  | 211 |

TABLE OF CONTENTS

|  |            |
|--|------------|
| Chapter 11  |            |
| Conventional and innovative responses to sexual violence          | 245 |
| Chapter 12  |            |
| Sexual violence and victims' justice interests                    | 293 |
| Chapter 13  |            |
| Conclusion: Taking stock, building knowledge, challenging justice | 331 |
| Index   | 359 |