

Table of content

Petrus C. van Duyne Aristotelian dimensions in organised crime research	1
Miroslav Scheinost Twenty-eight years of expert surveys on perceived trends in organised crime in the Czech Republic	23
Paul Larsson Policing organised crime	55
Anita Lavorgna You can't judge a book by its cover. Expounding gangmastering as organisational crime	75
Stefano Becucci Nigerian criminal cults in Italy. Internal organisation and main illegal activities	103
Petrus C. van Duyne and Jackie H. Harvey Grand corruption in Nigeria: Nigeria's grabbing political elite	137
Klaus von Lampe 'Clan crime' in Germany. An examination from the per- spective of the study of organised crime	169
Brendan Quirke Conflict Minerals. The hidden cost of technology	207
Petrus C. van Duyne, Anna Markovska and Alexey Serdyuk The organisation of eco-crime and corruption in 'green' Ukraine	233

Toine Spapens Manure fraud in the Netherlands: a rural green perspective	269
Adriano Francescallengi The role of Customs Laboratories in fighting hydrocarbon crime in Europe	299
Gabriëlle op 't Hoog and Linette de Swart The role of asset recovery teams in the fight against subversive crime	333