

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1	A Catholic university (1923)	11
1	Introduction	11
2	The old university and law faculty	12
3	Back to the twentieth century: the founding of the Roman Catholic University	14
4	Efforts by Schrijnen, Brom and Hoogveld to establish the Faculty of Law	17
5	The place of Roman law in the Nijmegen professorships	22
6	Objections to establishing the Roman Catholic University	24
7	Conclusions	25
2	Professors and lectors in the Faculty of Law (1923-1940)	27
1	Introduction	27
2	The first generation of Nijmegen law professors and lectors	28
3	The second generation of law professors and lectors	42
4	The Nijmegen professors and natural law	52
5	Resistance to fascism and National Socialism	55
6	The law study associations	60
7	Conclusion	60
3	The Nijmegen Faculty of Law in the Second World War (1940-1945)	63
1	Introduction	63
2	The arrests of Regout and Hoogveld	64
3	The Nijmegen Faculty of Law up to April 1943	66
4	The Nijmegen Faculty of Law from 11 April 1943 to 1945	71
5	Conclusion	75
4	Development and expansion of the Nijmegen Faculty of Law (1945-1970)	77
1	Introduction	77
2	Administrative and organisational changes	79

3	The post-war generation of law professors	81
4	Frans Duynstee and Willem van der Grinten: mainstays of the Nijmegen Faculty of Law	93
5	Nijmegen professors and natural law	101
6	Canon law in the Nijmegen law curriculum	104
7	The beginnings of Nijmegen's notary training as an academic study	106
8	The maelstrom of time: depillarisation and democratisation	109
9	Conclusion	111
5	The 'modern' Faculty of Law (1970-1998)	113
1	Introduction	113
2	Personalities from the 1970s	115
3	Personalities from the 1980s	127
4	Centre for Professional Legal Education (CPO)	136
5	Special law programmes in Nijmegen	138
6	Radboud Business Law Institute (OO&R) and Centre for Migration Law (CMR)	140
7	Conclusion	142
6	Concluding remarks (1998-2023)	145
1	Introduction	145
2	Administrative and organisational changes	146
3	Conclusion and recap	150
	Overview of the teaching responsibilities of the Nijmegen law professors	153
	Deans of the Nijmegen Law Faculty since 1970 and Alumni Deans (since 2007)	159
	Adresslist of Professors in 1946	161
	Bibliography	163
	Index	173